

Voice for SONG

Have your say...

·BADFS·

Blacktown
Alcohol and other Drugs
Family Services

SMALL NON-GOVERNMENT ORGANISATIONS MOVING FORWARD:

Common Goals, Models, Collaborative Partnerships and Action

A partnership has been formed between, Voice for SONG (Small Organisations Non-Government), Blacktown Alcohol and other Drugs Family Services (BADFS) and students enrolled in Research & Information Systems, Diploma of Community Services at Nirimba College of TAFE to address issues around the survival and development of small NGOs.

COMMUNITY FORUM/WORKSHOP

The purpose of this forum is to examine models and needs of small NGOs and facilitate collaborative action between small and large NGOs, government, business and community.

On: Thursday, November 7, 2002
At: 10.00 am – 1.00 pm (9.30 am Registration)
At: Conference Room,
Nirimba College of TAFE
Eastern Road, Quakers Hill

**After entering precinct grounds, turn left at roundabout before swimming pool. Conference Room is on 1st floor in building straight ahead - enter through glass double doors. Use car park UCP11 on left.*

Please RSVP to BADFS on 9622 7511 by November 1, 2002
badfs@pnc.com.au

Keynote Listeners and Speakers will include:

Anne Ford, College Director, Nirimba College of TAFE
UTS Research: Kristie Brown & Garth Williams
Alan Kirkland, CEO, NSW Council of Social Services
Gary Moore, NSW Premiers Department
Faye Williams, Local Community Services Association of NSW

Who can come!

Representatives from small & large non-government organisations
Representatives from government services and the community
Students

This Conference is a project of TAFE Research
Students, Nirimba College of TAFE, in partnership with BADFS & Voice for SONG